Social Stories

Lou Knows What to Do Series

GRADES PRE K-5

These social stories show children how a young boy named Lou can be comfortable and successful in potentially challenging situations. Each Lou Knows What to Do title is written for students in grades Pre-K to 5, including those with differing developmental levels and learning styles.

An excellent read for students living with autism spectrum disorders!

Lou Knows What to Do: Supermarket

Kimberly Tice and Venita Litvack, Illustrated by Andre Kerry

Whether he's in a new situation or a challenging one, Lou's prepared. His special bubble wand shows him the future, helping him see what he needs to do and say to be successful. So when it's time to go to the supermarket, whether he's with a parent, teacher or by himself, he knows what to expect and how to handle himself. Lou's bubble wand will help him be successful in any social situation that could be a challenge for him. 24 pgs. ITEM NO. 60-001 $10.95

Lou Knows What to Do: Special Diet

Kimberly Tice and Venita Litvack, Illustrated by Andre Kerry

Lou and his special bubble wand are back! This time, each bubble Lou blows shows him how to stick to his special diet and avoid foods that make him sick. He's allergic to nuts and grains, so he has to avoid foods with those ingredients. Lou also has to keep himself safe and healthy by politely asking what's in the food people offer him and by not sharing snacks with others. 24 pgs. ITEM NO. 60-002 $10.95

Lou Knows What to Do: Birthday Party

Kimberly Tice and Venita Litvack, Illustrated by Andre Kerry

With his special bubble wand, Lou always knows what to do in situations that may be unusual or different. In this edition of Lou Knows What to Do, he learns how to behave at a friend's birthday party. Lou's special bubble blower shows him what to expect (it's going to be loud!) and how he should act. Lou knows if he can behave appropriately at his friend's celebration, he will likely get more party invitations in the future. 24 pgs. ITEM NO. 60-003 $10.95

Uniquely Wired

A Story about Autism and Its Gifts

GRADES K-6

Julia Cook, Illustrated by Anita DuFalla

This is the heartwarming and illuminating story of Zak, a young boy living with autism who wants you to understand how he experiences the sights and sounds of the world around him.

Zak knows he's not quite like his siblings and classmates. Bright lights and big crowds send him into freak-out mode. Hugs make him uncomfortable, too. His atypical behaviors, from flapping his arms to spinning his body, seem so out of place. But for Zak, that's just how he copes.

Despite some peculiar behaviors, Zak's desires and disappointments are as ordinary as any child's. He loves trains and watches; he hates being bullied and excluded. As Zak embraces life the only way he knows how, he teaches those around him important lessons about fairness, patience, tolerance and independence. 32 pgs.

I Can't Believe You SAID That!

My Story about Using My Social Filter... or Not!

GRADES K-6

Julia Cook, Illustrated by Kelsey De Weerd

RJ's mouth is getting him into a lot of trouble. A rude comment at school earned him a detention. An insensitive remark at home earned him a scolding and made his sister cry. RJ doesn't realize his words are wrong. He thinks he's just offering feedback.

It's time RJ starts using a social filter when he speaks. With help from his parents, he learns he doesn't have to verbalize every thought that pops into his head. In fact, sometimes the less said the better! 32 pgs.

What Were You Thinking?

A Story about Learning to Control Your Impulses
GRADES K-6

Bryan Smith, Illustrated by Lisa M. Griffin

Third-grader Braden loves to be the center of attention. His comic genius, as he sees it, makes his friends look at him in awe. But some poor decision-making, like ill-timed jokes in class and an impulsive reaction during gym that left a classmate teary-eyed and crumpled on the floor, forces the adults in Braden's life to teach him about impulse control. But will the lessons shared by his teachers and his mom really help Braden manage his impulses? Find out in this amusing story by Bryan Smith. 32 pgs.

 Lisa M. Griffin

A heartwarming tale about spreading your wings and finding yourself. Boone is a gosling, loving life on the water with his geese family. He feels safe and comfortable in his small corner of the pond, so why would he ever leave?

When Boone's mom and siblings swim off to the opposite shore, he won't follow. He has his reasons, like the water seems too cold and deep, and the other shore looks too muddy. But when he sees his family having fun, he wonders what he's missing. Are they eating doughnuts down there? Are they warming their feathers by a campfire? What if they see the elusive pond Yeti over there?

Soon enough, Boone's curiosity grows bigger than his fears. Slowly he paddles away from his safe space, taking readers on a journey that reveals why leaving your comfort zone can lead to exciting and unexpected places. 32 pgs.

The Misadventures of Michael McMichaels Vol. 4: The Double-Dog Dare

GRADES 1-5
Tony Penn, Illustrated by Brian Martin

In volume 4 of this popular chapter book series, Michael finds himself in the dog house again. When wealthy new student Zeke moves into the neighborhood, he threatens to steal away Michael's best friend, Kenny. Green with envy, Michael challenges Zeke to crazy double-dog dares just to prove he's still top dog and Kenny's best bro. But when harmless dares escalate into bad jokes that hurt others, Michael has to figure out how to make things right again... or if he even can.

Chapter 1
You're not going to believe THE MESS
I got myself into this time. My mistake is sticking worse than garbage just before you're about to walk it to the curb. Here you ever heard in and out of it then? I suggest you don't, especially if there's a baby's diaper in there. In that case, I'll hold the garbage with one hand and pinch my nostrils with the other. (You'll need someone to open the door for you if you do that, but you get the point.)
Well, I'd rather stick my face in the garbage for an hour than have to deal with the mess I got best friend, Kenny. Green with envy, Michael challenges Zeke to crazy double-dog dares just to prove he's still top dog and Kenny's best bro. But when harmless dares escalate into bad jokes that hurt others, Michael has to figure out how to make things right again... or if he even can.

This silly and wacky adventure by Tony Penn will have students in grades 1 through 5 grinning in delight while learning valuable lessons about respect, open-mindedness and true friendship. 91 pgs.

The Misadventures of Michael McMichaels Vol. 3: The Creepy Campers

GRADES 1-5
Tony Penn, Illustrated by Brian Martin

Michael, his best friend Kenny and the always-annoying Harriet are at a New Mexico summer camp. They are stuck in the middle of nowhere, surrounded by spooky woods and visited by strange flying saucers... and that's the least of their worries!

Some of their fellow campers are cheating, lying and bullying their way to victory during camp competitions. Michael wants to win so badly, he starts bending the rules too.

Tony Penn's expertly-crafted plot twists and sharp dialogue help children clearly see the many real consequences of cheating and deception. 83 pgs.

Mindset Matters

GRADES K-5
 Bryan Smith,
 Illustrated by Lisa M. Griffin

An entertaining and eye-opening look at the power of the “gonna get it done” mindset. Amelia is her name and conquering new challenges is her game! She’s an up-for-any-adventure second-grader who’s eager to try new things – provided nothing can go wrong. She takes up skateboarding with gusto and feverishly builds a swing set for her kid brother. But at the first sign of trouble – tumbling off her skateboard and whacking her thumb with a hammer – she’s done.

Her confidence shattered, Amelia frets she’s a failure. But after a little self-reflection and some loving advice from dear-old Dad, Amelia learns she needs a “gonna get it done” mindset. With her new outlook, she discovers success has many definitions... more than she ever imagined.

Mindset Matters teaches children how to see problems and dilemmas as opportunities to learn and grow, and reveals why failing doesn’t make them failures. Written for readers in grades K-5, this storybook also includes tips to help parents and teachers foster a healthy “gonna get it done” mindset in every child. Updated to add more direct skill teaching. 32 pgs.

Kindness Counts GRADES K-5

A Story for Teaching Random Acts of Kindness
 Bryan Smith, Illustrated by Brian Martin

When Cade learns strangers have paid for his family’s ice cream at the drive-through, he wonders why anyone would do such a crazy thing. That’s when his dad tells him about random acts of kindness.

Cade thinks it’s a cool concept and is eager to start paying it forward, too. He happily agrees when his dad suggests donating some old toys to the less fortunate.

Giving away a few toys was okay when Cade thought Dad was going to buy him new toys as replacements. But when Dad reminds him that random acts of kindness should be done without wanting or expecting anything in return, Cade starts feeling a little less generous.

Cade’s generosity is often motivated by his own self-interests. What will he do when being generous and kind requires making a real sacrifice?

This is the first story in the author’s WITHOUT LIMITS book series. 32 pgs.

The Judgmental Flower

GRADES K-6
 Julia Cook, Illustrated by Anita DuFalla

The flower patch has always been the same. Purples pal around with Purples. Blues buddy up with Blues. Talls only talk with Talls, and Shorts always stand with Shorts. So when a Purple suddenly sprouts next to a Blue, all sorts of confusion ensues. Fortunately, Momma Blue is there to remind everyone about the beauty of diversity, including how the wind, rain, sun and bees treat all flowers the same regardless of the color of their petals or the size of their stems.

Award-winning author Julia Cook shares a timely and valuable lesson about appreciating differences and embracing diversity in life and in friendships. 32 pgs.

Coming Soon! May 2018

Rumor Has It. by Julia Cook

A book about gossip, rumors and the terrible trouble they cause.

Soda Pop Head

GRADES K-6

Julia Cook

His real name is Lester, but everyone calls him "Soda Pop Head." When things seem unfair to Lester, his ears get hot, his face turns red, and he blows his top! Lester's dad comes to his rescue by teaching him a few techniques to "loosen the top" and cool down before his fizz takes control and he explodes. This clever, funny story shows K-6 kids how to control their anger while helping them manage stressful situations. 32 pgs.

ITEM NO. 87-091 $9.95

Activity Book

Brainstorming, writing, and art activities help children learn to identify their anger and release it in healthy ways. 24 pgs.

ITEM NO. 84-070 $9.95

Winners Don't Whine and Whiners Don't Win

GRADES K-6

Julia Cook

When Wendell has one of those days where nothing seems to go his way, his mom helps him understand that everything in life doesn't have to be a contest. In fact, it can make you stronger! She also points out that although it feels great to celebrate a win, winning isn't everything and whining about things just makes it worse. 32 pgs.

teaching interactions that encourage positive student behaviors, reduce or prevent inappropriate behaviors, and correct misbehaviors. 258 pgs.

Teaching Social Skills to Youth, 3rd Ed.

GRADES K-12
 An Easy-to-Follow Guide to Teaching 183 Basic to Complex Life Skills
 Jeff Tierney, MEd and Erin Green, MS

Skills range from basic to complex and have been updated to reflect the challenges today's youth face. This edition still includes hallmark treatment examples, demonstrating how and when to teach the skills. But new insights and information, based on the latest research findings, have been added. Also added are details about multi-tiered approaches to social and emotional learning, and how skills relate to executive function. The appendices highlight what skills to emphasize when addressing social and emotional competency, executive function processes, behavior problems and problem situations. An enclosed CD offers printable posters for each skill. 312 pgs.

That Rule Doesn't Apply to Me!

GRADES K-6
Julia Cook,
Illustrated by Anita DuFalla

The rules keep getting in the way of his fun! Rules for this and rules for that. There are so many rules – too many rules! Noodle struggles because he doesn't think many of them actually apply to HIM! Can't he just have a rule-free day? Author Julia Cook's third book in the Responsible ME! series will have readers in stitches as Noodle describes the variety of rules he deals with daily. Will Noodle's mother and teacher convince him that rules are meant to help, not harm, him? 32 pgs.

But It's Not My Fault

GRADES K-6
Julia Cook,
Illustrated by Anita DuFalla

Poor Noodle. Things just don't seem to be going his way. But it's not his fault! It isn't his fault that his brother's game ran late, and he didn't finish his homework. Or that his mom forgot to remind him to turn in his library book. Or that Mary Gold got in his airspace and hit his arm with her head.

ITEM NO. 55-036 $10.95

Luckily, Noodle's mom is there to teach him not to blame others or try to find fault but instead take responsibility for his actions. 32 pgs.

This Julia Cook series helps kids in grades K-6 learn to be responsible.

Cheaters Never Prosper

GRADES K-6
Julia Cook, Illustrated by Anita DuFalla

Noodle's really done it this time! What should have been a friendly competition among classmates to make a sweet treat quickly turns sour after Noodle cheats his way to victory. He says he didn't really want to cheat but everyone has to once in a while, so what's the harm? Will Noodle get burned by his own deception, or will he muster the courage to confess to his trickery?

Young readers will learn a valuable lesson about the cost of cheating while enjoying a few laughs in this storybook from the Responsible ME! series by Julia Cook. 32 pgs.

ITEM NO. 55-042 $10.95

Baditude!

GRADES K-6
Julia Cook, Illustrated by Anita DuFalla

Everything in Noodle's life stinks, or so he thinks. Homework stinks. Practice stinks. Yard work stinks. And family pictures? They REALLY stink!

This is the story of a boy whose attitude, or "baditude," is alienating everyone around him. Can Noodle let go of his angst and try to find the brighter side of life?

With help from a teacher and his mom, Noodle learns how to turn his 'have tos' into 'get tos' and his baditude into gratitude! 32 pgs.

ITEM NO. 55-037 $10.95

The PROcrastinator

GRADES K-6
Julia Cook, Illustrated by Anita DuFalla

Norman, aka "Noodle," is a procrastinator who's constantly being told what to do. "Noodle do this. Noodle do that. Please do it RIGHT NOW. You must feed the cat." But Noodle has SO MANY other fun things to do, like hang out with friends and play videogames. So it's no surprise his cat goes hungry, the trash piles up and his homework is not done. Noodle always chooses to do the things he wants to do while never getting around to doing the things he NEEDS to do! This story creatively highlights strategies to help children learn how to do what needs to be done while still finding time for fun. 32 pgs.

I Can't Believe You SAID That!

My Story about Using My Social Filter... or Not!
 GRADES K-6

RJ says what he thinks... no matter how it sounds or makes others feel: "Gram, how come your skin looks like a Dalmatian?" "She stinks, Mom!" RJ's mouth is getting him into a lot of trouble. A rude comment at school earned him a detention. An insensitive remark at home earned him a scolding and made his sister cry. RJ doesn't realize his words are wrong. He thinks he's just offering feedback. It's time RJ starts using a social filter when he speaks. With help from his parents, he learns he doesn't have to verbalize every thought that pops into his head. In fact, sometimes the less said the better! ### The Worry Workbook for Teens

Jamie A. Micco, PhD

Worried all the time? Worried about school, tests, making new friends or even about what the future holds? The teen years are full of big changes, and it's normal to worry sometimes. But if you have chronic, difficult-to-control worries, you may have trouble sleeping and paying attention. You might even experience physical symptoms like stomachaches and headaches.

Written by an expert in teen anxiety, this is the first book to target chronic, debilitating worry with proven-effective skills to help you alleviate worry symptoms and prevent them from escalating into anxiety. With this book, you'll uncover the real reasons you worry all the time, stop unhelpful "junk mail" thoughts from taking over, challenge your worries, face your fears and—most importantly—reach your goals! 148 pgs.

ITEM NO. 86-050 $16.95

Overcoming Procrastination for Teens

William J. Knaus, EdD

If you're someone who procrastinates, you know your delays can have a negative impact on your life—especially when it comes to grades and preparing for the future.

This practical, research-supported workbook will help you understand the habit of procrastination, reduce it and increase your ability to get things done. Using tips and tools based in Cognitive Behavior Therapy, you'll learn how to address unfounded fears, improve self-perception, manage your time and feelings of boredom or indifference, increase critical-thinking abilities and organizational skills, and feel better prepared for the future—setting the stage for success in high school, college and beyond. 134 pgs.

Using effective mindfulness-based stress reduction (MBSR) and dialectical behavioral therapy (DBT), this workbook will show you the difference between healthy and unhealthy forms of anger. You'll learn how to stop overreacting, find emotional balance, and be more aware of your thoughts and feelings. 136 pgs.

ITEM NO. 86-033 $16.95

The Think Confident, Be Confident Workbook for Teens

Leslie Sokol, PhD, Marci G. Fox, PhD, Aaron T. Beck, MD

Self-confidence shapes the way you see the world. When you have healthy self-esteem, it helps you move through life and boosts your resilience against stress. On the other hand, negative thinking has negative consequences: low self-esteem and self-doubt can hold you back and lead to increased risk of anxiety, depression, and self-destructive behaviors.

Written by two leaders in the field of cognitive behavior therapy (CBT), The Think Confident, Be Confident Workbook for Teens is filled with easy CBT-based activities and tips. This book will help you recognize, rethink, and replace self-doubt, enabling you to transform your negative self-image. 224 pgs.

ITEM NO. 86-043 $16.95

Mindfulness for Teen Depression

Mitch R. Abblett, PhD, and Christopher Willard, PsyD

Depression can make it seem like you're viewing the world through dark or distorted glasses. With this powerful workbook, teens will learn effective skills based in mindfulness and positive psychology to help them manage difficult emotions, gain distance from negative thoughts, and enhance their awareness of the present moment. Included are activities and exercises, such as mindful meditations, walking, yoga, healthy eating and sleeping tips, and more.

This book will empower teens to feel better, more energized, and start reaching for their goals—one step at a time. 132 pgs.

Uniquely Normal: Tapping the Reservoir of Normalcy to Treat Autism

GRADES 1-12

Robert J. Bernstein with Robin Cantor-Cooke

Growing up, Robert J. Bernstein always knew his older brother was unique. Life with a brother on the autism spectrum taught him a lot—how to recognize moods, emotions and behaviors in someone who didn't think like him, and how to make a connection.

Dr. Bernstein has worked with patients on the spectrum for more than thirty years and has produced a cognition-based approach to work with people with autism on their terms, allowing them to lead. This book will help you recognize that each person with ASD contains a "reservoir of normalcy" that he or she

Drop-Out Prevention DVD Series

GRADES 7-12

This four-part video series follows the stories of a group of high school students who battle the kinds of problems that often lead to dropping out of school – peer pressure, drug use, academic struggles, and family stressors like poverty, illness, unemployment, and substance abuse. Using true-to-life situations, the dramatizations show how making good decisions, setting goals, establishing healthy relationships, and using available school and community resources to deal with family problems can help teens stay in school and graduate. Teens learn to think through the short- and long-term consequences of their actions and decisions.

The four programs can be presented as an ongoing drama, or each program can be used on its own. Each program includes an online leader's guide with discussion questions and student activities.

Building Relationships

Love, trust, and good feelings between parent and child are like a bank account you can draw on when you must discipline or correct a child's misbehavior. The more positive your relationship is, the more likely it is that your child will listen to you and try harder to please you. This DVD explores several ways to build a better relationship: Catch your children being good and reward them with your praise and attention. Hold short but regular family meetings and have fun with them. 28 min.

Teaching Children Self-Control

What's a parent to do when a child blows up, throws a temper tantrum, or freezes you out with the uncooperative, silent treatment? Teaching children how to stay in control when they are frustrated or angry is a difficult parenting challenge. This DVD gives you the tools to handle emotionally intense situations with your child. Learning how to stay calm yourself is the first step you must take when facing an upset child. Then the video demonstrates how you can calm the child down. 28 min.

Preventing Problem Behavior

Sometimes kids have no idea how to handle new situations, such as making a new friend. Or, they may repeatedly struggle with familiar, but problem situations, such as whining when asked to do a chore or to share a toy.

The key to preventing problems is teaching before a potential problem situation occurs. Preparing children by helping them learn social and life skills not only helps prevent disruptive behavior but can also save them from experiencing awkward or embarrassing situations. 28 min.

Raising Children without Losing Your Voice or Your Mind

On this DVD, child psychologist Dr. Pat Friman reveals 10 truths or "laws" that all parents should understand and follow if they want to raise happier, better-behaved children. They include:

- When children are disciplined, they are the ones who should be upset – why getting angry or raising your voice when children misbehave rarely works.
- The devil lurks in unfilled time – keeping children busy can keep them out of a lot of trouble.

Using stories and humor to explain the behavioral science behind his recommended parenting techniques, Dr. Friman gives a presentation that will entertain as well as educate parents and other caregivers seeking better ways of raising children, from toddlers to teens. 1 hr., 40 min.

Common Sense Parenting® of Toddlers and Preschoolers, 2nd Ed.

Bridget A. Barnes, MS, Steven M. York, MHD

Establishing a positive relationship with your child when she or he is young is made much easier when parents learn how discipline can be more about teaching than punishment, and more positive than negative for parents and their children.

In this second edition, parents are given enhanced parenting skills with updated parent steps and clearer explanations for how and why to use these steps with children:

- Set reasonable expectations based on your child's age, development, and abilities.
- Give your child the nurturing, love, and praise he or she needs to thrive.
- Use a parent's version of "show and tell" to both prevent problems and correct misbehavior.
- Create plans for staying calm – for you and your child. 280 pgs.

Working with Aggressive Youth

GRADES 5-12

Daniel L. Daly, PhD, with Michael N. Sterba, MHD

Angry, aggressive, or violent youth threaten the well-being of themselves, other children, and caregivers. They may need medication and therapy to treat their problems, but they also must learn how to control negative thoughts and emotions without turning to aggressive behaviors.

The authors offer effective short- and long-term ideas and strategies for defusing aggression in youth based on the approach and proven teaching methods developed in the Boys Town Model®. Sample Treatment Plans from a variety of settings help caregivers see how intervention strategies can be developed for aggressive youth and used in different environments.

Included is a social skills chart that can be used as an easy reference guide by caregivers as they teach new pro-social skills to replace old behaviors. 225 pgs.

Flirting or Hurting? When Is It Okay, When Is It Harassment DVD

GRADES 5-9

Human Relations Media

For middle schoolers, it can be challenging to figure out what actions and words constitute flirting and what behaviors cross the boundaries into sexual harassment. This video uses real students in realistic, dramatic scenarios to show young viewers the difference between real flirting (welcome, wanted, respectful, and fun) and hurting (unwelcome, unwanted, one-sided, and makes you feel bad). Viewers learn what it means to cross the line – in person, through texting, or online – and are reminded of the serious consequences for both the target and the harasser. PDF of Teacher Resource Guide included. 20 min.

ITEM NO. 86-449 $129.95

School Violence: You Can Help Prevent It! DVD

GRADES 7-12

MazzMedia

Through live-action, true-to-life scenarios, viewers will learn to identify potential problem behaviors and warning signs that can typically lead to violence. Viewers will recognize that an important way they can help prevent school violence is to simply be aware of their surroundings and be able to spot something before it escalates.

ITEM NO. 84-404 $149.95

Students will come to understand the difference between a direct and indirect threat and how context of the threat determines how it should be handled. In addition, students learn to identify behaviors that may be warning signs to potential violent actions, and that there is a link between violence and a person's need to feel connected to someone in the school community. 18 min.

Dearest Children

A Message Inspired by Father Edward J. Flanagan
Written and Illustrated by Eli Hernandez

On December 12, 1917, Father Edward J. Flanagan opened his Home for Boys in Omaha, Nebraska.

A century after Boys Town's founding, author and illustrator Eli Hernandez has captured Father Flanagan's true character by pairing his message with beautiful illustrations. This first-of-its-kind book encourages children to reflect on their blessings and challenges them to find their purpose as they lead lives of compassion.

Following the main text, parents will find interactive activities and discussion topics. This section provides opportunities for families to further connect to Father Flanagan's inspirational messages and put his principles into practice. 32 pgs. Hardcover.

Finding Happiness in Faith, Family & Work

Father Edward J. Flanagan, founder of Boys Town, spoke passionately on issues of youth and family before countless audiences over 30 years.

This book is a collection of inspirational thoughts on the needs of children, the value of hard work and sacrifice, the components of character, the importance of faith and family, and the measurement of success.

ITEM NO. 19-009 $11.95

Although his voice has been stilled for over half a century, Father Flanagan's inspiring words resonate with truth and power for us today. Each page will help you rekindle your passion and zest for life and its many blessings. 117 pgs.

"We sometimes forget that without happiness there is no such thing as success, and no one can be truly happy unless he or she is of service to others." – FATHER FLANAGAN
